

9th Interagency Social Science Roundtable Agenda

Tuesday, 19 November 2013, 1:00–4:00 PM (EST)

Hosted by National Park Service, U.S. Global Change Research Program (USGCRP)

Social Sciences Task Force and Coordinating Group on Scenarios

Room 7000A, Main Interior Building, 1849 C Street NW, Washington DC

Call-in #: 866-822-8059 | Passcode: 2550670# | Webinar Info: <https://join.me/121-828-164>

Host Contact: Tom_Fish@nps.gov | 202.302.9482 (mobile)

---

1:00 PM	Opening Remarks & Introductions	Tom Fish, NPS
1:15 PM	Agency Social Science Activities Round Robin	All
1:45 PM	Introduction to Scenarios... * Definitions. Development. Application. Interpretation. * Components. Data/Info Needs. * Target audiences. Management/Decision Context. * What is USGCRP trying to do with Scenarios? * Land Use/Land Cover- and Population- Change Scenarios.  Linking Scenarios Across Scales. * Consistency. Coordination. Challenges. Limitations.	Bob Vallario, DOE Linda Langner, USFS Chris Weaver, USGCRP
2:45 PM	Break.
3:00 PM	Overview of Scenario Development Workshops for... * Land Use/Land Cover Change. * Population Change.  Input and Discussion Regarding... * Specific Agency Application(s) * Partner and Audience/End User Engagement * Data/Info Needs * Workshop Design and Participation	Bob Vallario, DOE Linda Langner, USFS Anne Grambsch, EPA
4:00 PM	Adjourn
4:05 PM	Debrief Session (~90 minutes) ...for those who would like to continue the discussion, help with planning workshops, want to stay engaged, etc.	USGCRP SSTF & Scenarios Group

Directions:

The Stewart Lee Udall Department of the Interior Building is located between 18th and 19th Streets NW and between C and E Streets NW. The closest Metro stations are Farragut West (approx 6 blocks north) and Metro Center (approx 6 blocks east). The #80 and #S1 buses also service the nearby stops on 18th and 19th Streets. Non-DOI participants should enter through the C Street NW (1st Floor) entrance to register with security. Be sure to bring your federal badge or other government-issued identification. The meeting will be held in the 7th Floor conference room (7000A), located on the C Street (south) end of the building and accessible by elevators along the main corridor. FYI, food and beverage items are available for purchase in the Bison Bistro Cafeteria located in the basement.